CUPB BOK PHILANTHKOPISTS AND MILLIUNAIRES IN BINGKOK.

We cannot say exactly bow many philanthropists and millionaires Bangkok can boast, but that there is sufficient scope for such to exercise their charity is a fact that is abundantly close. I bere is much to be done in the way of raising up the lower strate of humanity, and providing means for ital better education, copecially the homeless and latherless. In all big cities cold the world numbers of friendless wails are to be found and Bangkok is no exception to the rule. In other cities, however societies, or "Crusades of Rescue," are doing very serviceable work in finding homes and means of education for such destitute children. In every land the children are looked upon as the most valuable asset of a nation, and for Siam where the population is so sparse in many parts of the country, the work of rescuing and chetishing the homeless and ouicast children should be of special

It is much to be feared that infant mortality. in Bangkok is much greater than it should be. We hear of bodies of infants being found in llongs, in the vicinity of old wats, and byes ways, besides being thrown into the river, which" is by no means of rare occurrence. It is only recently we heard of instances, of mothers' throwing the bodies of their new-born infants. into the Menam even before they were quite dead. It may be that the unfortunate mothers had no means of support and, thus abandoned, were driven to dispose of their offspring in this wy, With more homes for the destitute much could be done to mitigate the evil and preserve the lives of numbers of children that are cut off in so many ways at present. The country needs a well educated and growing population and in order to secure it the best means to the end must be taken.

It is not to every country great philanthropists and charitable millionaries are given to found many charitable institutions and contribute large donations for their support, but much could be done by supporting the charitable institutions that exist, more liberally, and give them better means of harbouring and educating the abandoned and homeless. lundreds of thousands of lives are thus saved to the countles of Rurope and America annually by this meens. They are brought up and educated, and trained for independent, strong and self-reliant life. They become honest, industrious citizens, in the various avocations in life, instead of becoming a scourge to society in their abandon. ed state, was said bely the house

Here, therefore, is a means of "making, merit " for all who have the means The children of the wealthy must be brought up in the full recognition of their brotherhood with the poor, and the inalienable right of the poor to equality of opportunity.

On the broad basis of universal charity and humanity, co-operation with all whose efforts are directed to the common good is highly commendable, and the noble work of preventing lofant mortality and rescuing the friendless waifs from the dangers that surround them. should find favour with all who have the welfare of the natio sat heart.

It may not be generally known that the Siamoso Government has already established two or three free homes of the nature above mentioned, which are doing very mentiorious work, but there is plenty scope for more, and it remains for the rich and charitably disposed to found others .- Slam Free Press.

STRANGE SIGHT IN CALCUTTA.

FIERCE FIGHT AMONG EURASIAN CHOOL GIRLS:

Bow Bazar Street, Calcutte, on December 7, was the scene of no little excitement over a particularly savage fight among a party of s bout a dozen Eurasian girls between the ages of 14 and 16 years, and but for the prompt action taken by the Police, the consequences would have proved most serious. The girls were pupils of one of the Anglo-Indian Schools in the locality, and had attended the Prize-giving ceremony held that day, attired in smart frocks and hats, At the close of the function while the gathering was dispersing, some of the girls passed some ugly remarks about another school girl of West Indian parentage. The latter having been much irritated over this a quarrel arose, followed with what practically amounted to a challenge to fight. The girls about a dozen in number, then assembled in the street where they engaged in a fight of a most savage character, Clenched fisis and kicks and hair pulling were freely indulged in. Hars were flung about in all directions, and many of the smart frocks of the young combatants were torn to threds during volleys of violent language. An immense crowd of speciators assembled on the scene, and apprared not a little astounded at the singular pogilistic exhibition by Eurasian girls. A Bengali spectator was beard Id remark. What are these, girls coming to, who they'll want to fight men peat. The fight lasted for about to minutes during which tramcar and other vehicular traffic "was practically held up. Superintendent Merriman accompanied by Inspector Cooper, on receipt of the news hastened to the scene, when some of the combitants made verbal complaints and expressed their determination to continue the fight On Me. Merriman threatening to lock them up, the giffe replied . Very well sir, we will go away to our bouses and there we will tosume the fight. With these remarks the combetants dispersed and then general treffic.

MR. WILDER ON CHINA.

LECTURE AT THE "ODD YOLUMES" SOCIETY The Hon Mr. W. E. Pollock, K.C., presided at a meeting of the Hongkong Odd Volumes Society, yesterday afternoon, when Mr. Wilder In Bags of ago Da. net $8 00 per Bas described the journey from Hankow to Canton, which, by the way of Kweilin, and the Fa River flowing into Wuchow, made a distance of about 1,000 miles. There were three Europeans in the party and three Chinese attendants, and on the overland part of the journey the party made a procession of about 40, with the coolie carriers. He described the walled cities, large and small, of which in isnded into the basardous and/or extra hazard. Honen and Kwangsi province each there may be 62 or 70. "At Pingshan the party found a very large coal mine operated by elevan Ger-All Claims must be presented within ten mans for Chinese owners. Most of the journey war by houseboat, a very comfortable mode of travel. The party carried their own provisions supplementing it by chickens, rice fruits, and occasionally vegetables. The natives were uniformally kind, and the officials called on the travellers and sent them escorts to all they wished to see. The exhibit of 2,00 soldiers at Changaba was most excellent as regards equipment, and :movements. :On the drill ground were horizontal and parallel bars, where numbers performed exercises showing skill and strength. The country is universally mountainous south of the Xangtee, the pathways are made of flat stones or cobbles rough in places, and impossible for an automobile but much better than the mud. The walking trip was marred by rains for some five days, and the discomfort of arriving and sleeping in Chinese inns, which the party did for 13 nights, was considerable. Ricestraw is much used for fuel though some districts have a small growth of trees and there are occasional deposits of coal. The people seem to be very poor in the country districts, but always cheerful. In the cities was more evidence of wealth. The natives have nothing to show in the way of mechanical devices beyond spinning wheels and crude water wheels. In one city there were two of these perhaps 40 feet high lifting water from a river into a tank. There were "ancient things shops" in "the cities, but no "finds" in the way of rare pottery or cution. One city is noted for pewter, but inferior to the Swatow article. The villagers along the way were poor and unprogressive. The country roads are brokenevery mile or so by rest houses, through which the roads pass where carriers are sheltered from the rain and may purchase refresh-[130 | ments. Near Kweilin for a stretch of 100 miles is a curious cone formation, thousands of clevations from 100 to 600 feet high, of weather beaten rock, occasionally faced with some vegetation. These must be of great interest to goologists. One is rarely away from the sigh there are large areas ur cultivated. Withal the speaker made it clear that such a trip must be very informing as to the life of the rural population of China. A touch of the medieval was a procession of three closed sedan chairs under soldier escort, being rapidly carried by coolies, each chair being surmounted by the yellow (Imperial color) dragon flag. They born tribute to Peking -perhaps choice specimens of pewier ware, or latquer or other local product, to decorate the home of some mandarin or even the Royal house. It is said that these chairs prove day and night without stop save to take on fresh coolies, the guardians of the treasures sleeping while in transit. China's lack of uniformity of currency proved a great inconwen ence. Each province bas its own currency. There is no gold; and in these remote districts practically no paper money, save for the largest transactions. Rech province is wary of money

DONE BY TRYING.

Nobody can tell what he can do till he tries. When a thing ought to be done the modern spirit moves us to keep working away at it until it is done. In the face of this idea the "impossible " vanishes, Where there's a will, there's a way. " If we could but rob cod liver oil of its sickening taste and smell and then combine it with two or three other ingredients we should possess the best remedy in the world for certain diseases that are now practically incurable." So said a famous English physician twenty-five years ago. "But it will never be done," he added. "You can no more turn cod liver bil into a pleasant palatable medicine, than you can turn the Codfish itself into a Bird of Paradisc." Yet he lived to admit that in WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION the "impossible" had been accomplished. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. This semedy is freed from the bad poculiarities Dr. Frothingham so detested, and at is precisely the splendid medicine he wished for. HONGKONG, SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 1908.

AN ABORTIVE BOYCOTT.

In another column, we reproduce an account of the threatened boycott at Shang- the man-of-war auchorage on the journey hai, reported in our telegram columns the homewards. Following close on her wake was other day. Rumours have been current for some time that a boycott of British firms was in course of manipulation by certain native agitators, presumably as a means of forcing the British and Chinese Corporation to forego its rights under the Concession granted by the Peking Government to construct the Soochow-Hangchow Ningpo Railway. That there was some foundation for these rumours was proved on Saturday when was discovered that Chinese expresses were being distributed in the settlement, asking the Chinese to refuse to accept the notes of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation. From what has transpired so far, the expresses do notappear to have been issued with the sanction of any association or combination, remarks the Shanghai Mercury, which, writing editorially, observes:-"Indeed, the issue of the expresses would seem to have been simply the idea of the manager of a native bank, who seemingly was native enough to image he could derive some possible profit to himself or his bank from a boycott of the leading Shanghai bank. It is satisfactory to know that the conduct of the native banker has been so promptly repudiated by the Provincial Judge, Jui Cheng, the late Shanghai Taotai and by the native Chamber of Commerce, and that action has been taken by the present Shanghai Taotai which will probably have the effect of preventing in the future similar unadvised attempts to disturb the good relations at present existing between foreigners and Chinese in Shanghai. The police are descrying of every credit for the promptness with which they succeeded in tracing out the origin of the circulars and for so quickly bringing those responsible before the Mixed Court. With-the proceedings at the Mixed Court to-day, however, we cannot express the same satisfaction, and we think Assistant Superintendent Springfield was justified in the protest he made at the unseemly haste with which the case was rushed through the Court. It would almost seem as if there was something in connection with the matter which it was desired to conceal STYLISH & SMART GOODS. from the public. As the affair might, had it had any encouragement given it, have had the most serious consequences—it cannot be forgotten that the 1905 riots were preceded by the issue of a similar express-it is in the interests of the safety of the settlement that the utmost publicity should be given to any proceedings in Court in such cases. We are not disposed; however, to give too much importance to the present affair, and we expect that the firms more immediately concerned look upon the incident with complete indifference, but nevertheless it is desirable in the The whole of our Winter interests of the foreigners that attempts of this kind should be seriously regarded. Stock to be cleared at From the remarks of the accused's counsel and the manner in which the charge was 25% off original prices. disposed of by the Court, it is evident that it has been arranged that no actual punish. ADMIRAL MOORE'S COMPLIMENT.

H.M.S. "HAWKE" AND "CRESCENT" HOMEWARD DOUND.

Flying the paying-off pennant at the fore H.M.'s craisers Hawki and Crescent, with the paid-off crew of H.M. flagship King Rifred, upon their termination of a most successful two years' commission, left the harbour this morning homeward bound. Before the King Affred's took their departure from this station, they were bonoured by a few parting remarks from the Commander-in-Chief yesterday forenoon, Sir Arthur Moore visited the senior ship-the Hawke-yesterday and in obedience to H.B.'s wishes the homeward bound men were mustered on the quarter deck of the cruiser. Addressing them, briefly, the Commander-in-Chief complimented the men on their smartness and efficiency during the happy commission that had just terminated. wished them all, in conclusion, a happy voyage home. Leaving the Hawke, the Admiral then visited the Crescent and on board the cruiser the same pleasing function was gone through. H. E. then took his departure for the King Alfred.

At 9 o'clock this morning the Hawke, will the senior officer on board led the way from the Grescent. The cruisers went out westwards. As soon as they cast off the Bands of the first - H. M. S. King Alfred, Bedford and Kent-mustered on the foc'castle and for the next quarter of an hour the farewell airs, now so familiar in this harbour, filled the sir. The Bands played in turn "Old Acquaintances," "Rolling Home," " Auld Lang Syne," and "Say Au Revoir." The white ensigns of the Bawks and the Crescent dipped to the King Alfred as the senior ship, the flagship returning the compliment by running up the signal "Pleasant Voyage Home." From the German cruiser Arcona three ringing cheers went furth to the departing boys of the King Alfred-a compliment which must surely have been appreciated by the gallant British tars.

Slowly the Hatoke and the Crescent steamed through the fairway and out by Sulphur Chennel the grey hulls were soon lost to view. The cruisers will make a brief stay at Singapore, thence at Colombo, whence by way of Suez they proceed home, where an enthusiastic reception awaits the gunners of the China station who, during their two years' commission, established as many Naval world records.

The leaflets in question emanated from the S.ng. Xi Savings Bank and were to the following effect :-

"As the draft agreement made with the British Corporation for the construction of the Kiangsu-Chekiang Railway has not been can celled, a matter really affecting in a great measure the rights and privileges of the people of our country, this Bank has now formulated a most substantial plan opposition, which we respectfully present for the information of our breihren as follows !-by the end of the Chinese 12th moon (January this draft acreement be not cancelled this Bank will, without fail, issue in the 1st moon of hext year an express, cilling upon the people of all the Treaty ports to stop using the Bankantes of the Hongkong and Phanghai Banking Corporation. .... Now, with regard to the Railway question, representatives (of the two provinces concerned) are already in Peking consulting with

Such being the case, how can we Chinese Merchants act, on the other hand, in an unintelligent manner, and so endanger the safety and well being of trade? His Excellency Sir Frederick Lugard, who was accompanied by Lady Lugard, and Mr A. J. Brackenbury, private secretary, presented the prizes to the successful scholars of the Anglo-Chipere District Schools, at the Wanchai School, to-day. The little school house, which presented a most festive appearance, decorated with fligs and pot plants, was well filled. among those prerent being Brother Sylvester, Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe, inspecter of schools, Mrs. Wilkinson and Mrs. Monis, of the Victoria. British School, Miss Bird Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Young Hee, Mrs. Tutcher, Mrs. Hewett, Mrs. Green, Misa Elsinghouse, Mr. Mackenzie, Mr. Voemel, Rev. Bunbury, and a number of Chinese gentlemen.

The proceedings were started with the recitation of." The lox and the grapes," by a young scholar, which was loudly applauded, at the conclusion of which the reports of the schools were read by their respective headmasters. Y UMATI DISTRICT SCHOOL. .

WANCHAI DISTRICT SCHOOL. Mr. Young Hee's .ld: - Y'er Excellency, Mr. Wolfe, Lidies and Gentlemen, I have much pleasure in presenting my 5th annual report on the work of the Wanchai District School for the year just ended. It is my good fortune to again record substantial progress all round, and lof the period during which I have been headmaster, each succossive year has shown a steady and marked improvement. The staff was, at the beginning of 1907, strengthened by the addition of two assistant masters, one V and one VI grade, so that the staff for the year has been .assis'ants and myself. I take this opportunity of publicly thanking my as istants for their hearty co-operation in bringing the past year's work to a successful issue. The attendance has again, gre tly improved when compared with that of 190'. On the 1st January, there were 1 9 n mes on the school roll. On reasse bling after the New Year vacation, 96 of the scholars returned, and 122 out of?rig new applicants were admitted. During the course of the year, 49 additional boys were enrolled, bringing the total for the year to :90, being an increase of 74 upon that of the previous year. For various reasons 86 left, and of these, about one-lirlf entered Queen's College; many found situations with local commercial firms, and a number, through poverty, were unable to pay the necessary fee. The maximum monthly enrolment was 230 and the number on roll at the end of the year was 201. The school was np p on 230 days, and the average daily attendance for the actual school year was 210, as compared with 146 for the preceding year, 42 boys registered the full attendance. The fees collected amount to $4, 76, which is an increase of 38% upon that (f 1996, and 78% upon that of 1995. The apparatus in the school is satisfactory : 75 dual desks are now in use, and more have been provided for in the Estimates for the current year. In yew of the continued and steady growth of the sch of, more desks will be rehuised when the school building has been extended as a proposed. The reports of the headmasters and of the Inspector of Schools were, he thought, satisfactory, (Applause). The attendance at the schools had increased wond ifully-from 140 last year to 210 this year. The year before the last Sai-ying-poon or chool had 44 pupils; last year this number was more than doubled, while this year the s umber stood at 291. In 1926 there were 98 icholars at the Yau-ma-ti School. This figure was doubled last year. This year there were 18¢ names in the book. Including the Tang-loong-chow School the number of scholars attending the District' Schools was 644. His Excellency then passed on to the conduct of the boys after school hours, telling them that they had some dignity to maintain. Speaking of the remarkable increase in the number of scholars in these schools, he stated that it was difficult for the Government to keep pace with them. Yauma-ti had a new school building, but it still neede ! further extensions and a play ground. Parslog on, his Excellence sa'd that the parents of a boy could give him on greater and important present than an education. An entry to Queen's College meant three or four more years in school and a better education, which was better than a partnership in a business house, or a fortune in dollars. If a boy left school early he could only secure a second or third rate appointment; but the boy with a good education could obtain a good sppointment in mercantile houses, in Government offices and in China. And the object of the District Schools was to train boys not only for the benefit of the Colony, but for China to which country thair, people, belong, He concluded with the demark that there were many opportunities for an educated boy obtaining employment at the opening of this railway and other railways in Ching," He wished them all a pleasant hollday and a happy how Year, we

EDUCATION IN CHINA.

THE SCARCITY ! F TEACHERS. In the course of his very interesting report on China, Sir Alexander Hosie, Acting Commercial Attaché to the British Legation at Peking, has the following reference to educa-"Although one hears of diminished attendance at schools in certain provinces of China, there can be no doubt that the thirst for education on Western lines is on the whole as keen as ever, and the difficulty is the lack of proper tultion. Educated teachers are scarce and many years must elapse before there can possibly be a sufficient supply. A short stay in Japan'is too often considered sufficient equipment not only for teaching others but also for instructing the Chinese authorities, and it is a matter of satisfac tion that the Chinese Government or provincial authorities have recently recognised the desirability of sending batches of students to the West where knowledge can be acquired at first hand. At present it appears that Western education cannot be abserbed without the tise of cheap spectacles, and it is regrettable that the Customs returns do not supply details as to the quantity annually introduced into the country. To judge from the numbers one sees everywhere it must be great. But the Chinese student has an excuse. It must be remembered that each Chinese character is an ideograph-a picture of fairly large sizo-whereas the type of foreign books is to him extraordinarily small and he has to adjust his vision to it, There is some grumbling at being saxed to build schools, at being called upon to pay for what appears to yield no immediate benefit or result, and it is amusing to listen to the conversation of two of the bighest officials in the Empire recalling, if not lamenting, old days (two or three years ago) when a tutor competent to finish the aducation of a whole family could be engaged at from Is to 20 tarle per mouth, whereas in these days. several tutors have to be employed at much higher fers to impair the sections branches of Vestera learning ster continuend pace seaty as

PORCED COOOA LABUUM BRITISH FIRMS SECURE IMPROVED CONDITIONS.

The position of indentured labour in the Portuguese islands of St. Thome and Principe. has been the subject of remonstrances by British cocon manufacturing firms who draw part of their supply from the islands. These firms, Messre. Cadbury Brothers, Limited, Messrs. Fry, and Messrs. Rowntree, some time, ago sent representatives to the islands, with the result that a disquieting report was presented. The manufacturing firms have now followed up this action by a mission to the Government of Portugal, undertaken by Mr. William A. Cadbury. We have been supplied with an official statement of the mission and ts results, which appear to be highly satisfac-

Mr. William A. Cadbury, was accompanied in his mission by Mr. Joseph Burtt, who was sent out in tone by the three English cocos firms of Cadbury, Fry, Rowntree, and by Messes. Stol'werck, of Cologne, to investigate the conditions of labour to the Portuguese islands, and the metho's of recruiting employed in the Portuguese colony of Augola, on the African mainland.

Mr. Burtt's inquiry extended over nearly two years, and he was accompanied in his visit to Angola by Dr. P. Claude Horton, of Brighte The report of Mr. Burtt and Dr. Hoston to the English manufacturers was presented to the cocoa planters in Lisbon.

DAMAGING D'ECLOBURES Among the facts established by the report

are the following : (.

That the large majority of Angala natives taken to St. Thome are brought to the coast and shipped to the islands against their will; that the good repatriation laws are a dead letter; that " offences against the person of the native." are inpu nerable and must continue until labour is made free in reality, and not in name only; that the treatment of the native in the islands at any rate on the large and bestmanaged estates is excellent.

Nevertheless, the death-rate among the natives is appallingly high. Furthermore, i appears from medical reports that most of the mortality is due to two causes-animais and dysentery, the highest death-rate being among the newly-arrived lab :urers and that this is it be expected, seeing that these people are forcibly taken from their homes, without hope of return.

AN EFFORT TOWARDS IMPROVEMENT.

On 28 Nov. Mr. Cadbury and Mr. Burtt con ferred with a committee of the planters, Mr. Cadbury pointing to the Portuguese colony of Morambique on the last Clast of Africa, as an example of the practicability of obtaining labour under conditions of free contract, and equally free repatriation. Mr. Cadbury also pointed out that such a system, once established, would naturally check existing abuses. Mr Cadbury, in conclusion, speaking on behalf of his own firm, said: . Our conscience would not allow us to go on purchasing raw material for our business unless we are assured that in future it is produced by free labour."

It may be mentioned that the preparation of St. Thome cocoa which comes to England is less than 1-23th of the world's supply. As a result of the conference, the planters published a lengthy defence and statement addressed to the English Cucoa manufacturers.

PLANTERS' DEFENCE.

In a list of "conclusions" appended to the statement the planters say they are possessed of the same liberal and humane sentiment as Mr. Cadbury, and it is entirely contrary to their intention to place any difficulties in the way of the repatriation of those labourers desiring to return home.

The repitriation fund, now amounting to about £100,0 m, will by the wish of the planters be transferred to the Colonial Bank in St. Thomé, as agents of the "tate, on 31 Dec. next, to. be administered by the local committee of emigration under the superintendence of the Government. Each repatriated labourer will receive about L18 upon landing in Angola. Those , who wish to renew their contract will receive to per cent, increase in wages, and their capital (£13) will be returned to them in quarterly instalments of six per cent. A new repatriation fund will then be started for each labourer. The first contracts of service made under the law of January, 1903, will expire in the first #### half of the year 1908. GOVERNMENT ACTION.

The planters say that they have so intention of asking the Government in future emigration of labourers from other Portuguese colonies to exclude the right of repatriation, It is stated that the Colonial Minister'is sending to Angola mext January his chief of staff to investigate personally any irregularities in the present system of recruiting.

It is added that the Portuguese Government has taken action to establish obedience to the law in those regions in Angola formerly outside its control. The planters state that the particulars collected by Mr. Burtt in St. Thome and Principe, and accepted in good faith by him, were not always an exict expression of

The British Foreign Office also took action, and in the report the Colonial Minister, Senor Ormellas, in a personal interview with the English cocos manufacturers, assured them of the intention of the Portuguesa Govern ent to investigate the whole subject in Angola, with the lotention of replacing the present irresponsible recruiting agents by a pr per-Government system. The system of recruiting will be such that it will also serve as a means of repairiation, and make it practicable for the native to return to his home in the interior.
